My Good Friend, Lion

There is a story between me and the big lion.
Yesterday, he was sleeping and I ran up on him.
He was angry but he didn't eat me.
I hope I can help him someday.
He cannot believe me but he is kind.
Luckily, I was free!

Today is a great day and I'm taking a walk.
I suddenly hear a big roar.
I see the king of animals, the lion, is tied on the tree and crying.
I quickly go near him and chew on the rope.
The lion is free and grateful.
"Thanks to your help! You are my best friend!"

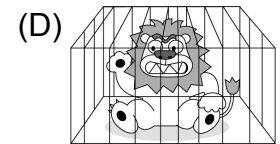

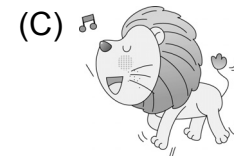

( C ) 1. What's the relationship between the lion and the rat in the beginning of the story?

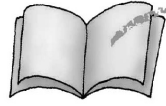

( B ) 2. What does the story tell us?

- (A) It's important to be a thankful person.
- (B) A small help can help yourself someday.
- (C) Lions and rats can't be friends.
- (D) Rats are a big help to lions.

( A ) 3. What does the word "tied" mean in the reading?
